

Priya Singh (she/her)

Available to start immediately

Priya is a natural connector who brings genuine care and organisational excellence to collaborative environments. Having coordinated a successful university charity drive involving 200+ students, she's proven her ability to manage complex logistics whilst bringing people together around meaningful causes. What stands out is her combination of dependability and process-improvement mindset — she notices when team members need support and actively creates systems that help everyone succeed. Her methodical approach to problem-solving, combined with authentic empathy, makes her invaluable in roles requiring both operational excellence and team harmony.
